

iADH Jan Andersson-Norinder Travel Bursary Award

Calling iADH Members

Announcing the iADH Jan Andersson-Norinder travel bursary award for the iADH 2024 Congress in Seoul, Korea.

Six bursaries of up to 1500 US dollars are available for individuals with limited means in order to assist them with travel costs to Korea in order to participate in the congress and give a scientific oral or poster presentation.

Applications are invited from iADH Members only. These may be individual members of iADH or members of affiliated member organisations. Your personal iADH membership number can be requested by emailing the IADH membership Officer membership@iadh.org

Award Criteria:

- Be the presenting author of an accepted abstract for a scientific oral or poster presentation at iADH 2024 Seoul.
- Provide your personal iADH membership number (see above)
- Provide a cover letter of a maximum 1000 words, including the following information:
 - supporting information which demonstrates your activities related to promoting oral health for people requiring special care dentistry in your own country
 - details of any activities, collaboration and/or interaction with iADH within the last FIVE years
 - key messages in your oral presentation and the importance of sharing these with a global audience
 - your personal and professional goals in attending the conference.
- Be resident and employed in a developing country as defined by the World Data Bank (the list of eligible countries is given on the iADH 2024 website, registration page)

Please send your application to: secretary@iadh.org

Application Deadline: 14th June 2024